A Coming Company.

New York, 28.—The Herald says: The whole company belonging to A. M. Palmer's Union Square Theatre, destined for San Francisco, where they open under the management of Haverly, on the 7th of August, in the California Theatre, left to-night. The party is in charge of W. R. Palmer, and consists of Sarah Jewett, Maud Harrison, Mrs. E. J. Phillips, Eleanor Carey, Clois Willis, Netta Guion, Nellie Wetherill, Eva French, Joseph E. Whiting, Fred. Dellville, John Parrelle, J. N. Stoddard, Waldo Ramsey, Owen Fawcett, Clinton Stuart, Julian Magnus, C. E. Collier. The veteran Ben Barker as stage manager, Alfred Beck, W. E. Morse, W. S. Quigley and A. Jacques, with W. A. Bates in charge of the train; S. Shook, A. R. Cazan, and many friends were at the depot to a bon voyage. Haverly hires the company and the right to the repertoire for $6,500 a week. The company opens with Haverly's "Barker's Daughter." Whiting playing John Strehlow and the rest of the cast as before; following this will be "False Friend," "Daniel Rochet" and "Lights of London." Seven weeks will be passed in San Francisco, one in Salt Lake City, two in Denver, three nights in St. Joe, three nights in Kansas, and four weeks in Chicago. A merrier party has rarely been seen. They feel well, and anticipate a jolly time on the road, and a successful enterprise in the Golden State.

Panama Railroad Company.

New York, 27.—Tax commissioners, to-day, filed their writ of certiorari, obtained by the Panama Railroad Company, alleging over-valuation of the capital stock. In their return the commissioners say that the original assessment was on $14,280,000, and after it had been recorded the company protested claiming that the capital stock was $7,000,000, and the real estate in the United States of Colombia $8,832,870. They claimed that they should not be taxed, as the real estate was in excess of the capital stock. The commissioners finally accepted $7,000,000 as the original valuation, but valuing each share at the present price $204, making the capital stock $14,280,000. To this they made an allowance of 10 per cent., which reduced the valuation to $12,852,000. They then deducted the cost of real estate, which made the valuation of the capital stock $4,632,130, which sum is now assessed, which the commissioner's declare is the proper taxable valuation.

Miscellaneous Matters.

New York, 27.—A meeting in commissioner Fink's office, of the joint executive committee was held to-day. It was agreed that the gross rate upon cattle should be increased to 60c. per 100 pounds, on the basis of Chicago to New York, the net rate remaining the same as heretofore. The gross and net rates on sheep will also remain as at present, to take effect August.

New York, 27.—Tattersall's Turf Club was raided by the police. The gamblers being forewarned defaced the apparatus and escaped.

Aaron Q. Burr, adopted son of Aaron Burr, died this morning at his residence, West 129th street. He was born in Paris 1806, and was a son of Count Verdi De Lisle.

New York, 28.—The proceedings against railroad companies to compel them to receive and transmit freight has been quashed. The judge says the court cannot fix the rate of wages, though the legislature might. Citizens may at law recover from the roads damages for refusal to receive or transport goods.

Criminalities.

Shreveport, La., 27.—This morning the Mendon mail stage was robbed by two masked men, fifteen miles from here. They cut the mail pouches, securing thirteen registered packages. Four passengers and the driver were relieved of money and jewelry. The robbers escaped.

San Francisco, 27.—Portland, Oregon, dispatch: E. H. Cummings, the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company's agent at Pomeroy, W. T., was found murdered in his house, to-day, his skull split open with an axe. His money drawer and purses were found rifled of their contents. He was last seen in company with two Chinamen, who are the supposed murderers.

Detroit, 28.—B. F. Biglow, formerly receiving teller of the National Bank of the republic, Washington, was arrested this morning at Port Huron, alleged to be short $25,000 since July 23d. He has been going from place to place, and gave himself up to avoid the bother.

Fort Worth, 27.—Rev. Harvey Stearns, in an affray with a farmer named Jefferson, inflicted a fatal wound with a club, and has been lodged in jail.

Political.

Philadelphia, 27.—Senator Thomas V. Cooper, chairman of the republican state committee, says the reply of the independents does not change the situation as it merely reduces to a formality the selection of the propositions submitted by the regulars. He thought the independent movement had lost its strength among the republican masses, and predicted the stalwart and independent ticket will poll less votes than the Armstrong (labor) ticket the probable strength of which he placed at something over 30,000.

Petersburg, Va., 27.—Readjusters and republican coalitionists of this city, in mass meeting, heartily endorsed the fair and just administration of President Arthur.

Faterson, N. J., 27.—Greenbackers of the Fifth District nominated Erastus E. Potter for Congress.

Hot in Gotham.

New York, 27.—The rain promised by the weather bureau has not arrived. The heat is oppressive and steady. Nearly 200 deaths in twenty-four hours, closing at noon to-day.
Quite a number of people were fatally affected by the heat in this city and Brooklyn, and neighboring places. Night brings little relief.

Produce.

Chicago, 28.—Wheat, active, lower, regular 101 July, 97½ August, winter 101½ bid cash, spring 130 cash, 28 July; corn, weak, lower, 77½ cash, 5½ August; pork weak, lower 206½ cash, 72½ September, 77½ October; lard, weak, lower, 150½ cash, 121½ September, 22½ October.
